Summer Fayre.....It

is nearly that time again. The joint schools summer fayre is our biggest event of the year and we are busy organising! Please read the information below to ensure you don't miss anything. We will as always need your help to ensure the day is a success and will be advertising the link to our helpers list next week. So please keep a look out and sign up for

Competitions...

There are lots of ways for the children to get involved. Letters will be sent home next Tuesday with details of the summer fayre competitions. They will be invited to take part in designing the fayre programme, creating a medieval model and
